

9th Annual
NIGHT
OWL PROWL
at the Heritage Room

Friday, September 18

Noon - Midnight

Remember all those times you found something just as the repository was about to close? Ever dream of spending the night in a genealogical collection? Now's your chance!

When the Library closes at 6 p.m. on September 18, you and fellow genealogy researchers will have the upper floor of the Library all to yourselves. There will be food and beverages and a security guard to walk you to your car if you leave before midnight. The charge is $20 per person to cover the cost of security and food. You may want to bring a sweater or light jacket, because the Heritage Room is known to be chilly! Not for beginners!

- Over 6000 books, 2000 rolls of microfilm, 1000 microfiche, 200 compact discs
- Online access to Ancestry Library Edition (Ancestry.com), strong Georgia collection, Civil War collection, African American history, print indexes, county histories, Athens newspapers on microfilm since 1808, Clarke County deeds, mortgage and probate records and MUCH MORE!
- 20 computers with Internet access and copy machines available for your use
- Plus staff and volunteers on hand to assist you

Sponsored by Clarke Oconee Genealogical Society and the Athens-Clarke County Library Heritage Room. Call (706) 613-3650, ext. 350 for more information.

Number of participants limited, so check and registration form must be received by Wednesday, September 16 at 6 p.m.
